

Operations

1. Mathematical operations are actions that “operate” on one or more numbers. Look at your calculator, which does numerous operations, and identify ten different operations by symbol:

2. Binary operations “operate” on two numbers and turn them into one number. Which operations you listed above are binary operations?

3. Inverse operations are pairs of operations that "undo" each other. List five pairs of inverse operations: